

Engage with American Urogynecologic Society Members Online Year-Round

Our new online community now lets you interact with members of the American Urogynecologic Society through powerful digital tools

Benefits:

- Partner Page: generate leads with an ongoing presence in our online community. From here you can publish an unlimited amount of content to increase awareness for your business
- Community Webinars: run live thought leadership events that are promoted by AUGS to our members and permanently stored within the AUGS online community
- In-Feed Highlight: Your Partner page will be featured in the community posting feed for 30 days upon signing up
- Member Onboarding: During the onboarding process AUGS members will be prompted to follow your page
- Partner Directory: be included in the go-to searchable index where members look for companies that can help address their challenges and needs
- Direct Messaging: respond to members of the community who message your team looking for more information and reach out proactively to any members of the community who follow you
- Community listening: keep your ear to the ground for key industry developments members are discussing and understand how your company can react to market trends
- Sponsored Posts: get your message in front of our members by making posts into the community
- Digest Emails: Realtime, daily, weekly digest emails to members will highlight Community Premium Partners
