

Indiana University School of Medicine

Fellowship Program Name: Indiana University School of Medicine

Fellowship Coordinator: Elizabeth Fuller

Address:

1633 N. Capitol Avenue
Suite 436
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Phone: 317-962-8633

Fax: 317-962-2049

E-mail: efuller@iuhealth.org

Description: The fellowship program is designed to ensure education and training of physicians who can improve the health care of women and provide leadership for the subspecialty. The program provides fellows with state-of-the-art clinical abilities and investigative and scholarly skills to prepare for a career in academic medicine.

Other Degrees or Curricula Offered: Opportunities to earn a Master of Science in Clinical Research or a Certificate of Science in Clinical Research exist.

Requirements: Satisfactory completion of an OB/GYN or urology residency that is accredited by the ACGME or the CRCPSC

Program Length: 3 years

Number of Fellows: 3

Fellowship Program Director: Michael Heit MD, PhD

Urogynecology Faculty: Michael Heit MD PhD, Douglass Hale, MD

Colorectal Faculty: Bruce Robb, MD

Urology Faculty: C. R. Powell MD

Gastroenterology Faculty: Toyia James-Stevenson MD

Application Process: ERAS

For more information regarding the program, please visit
<https://medicine.iu.edu/departments/obgyn/education-programs/fellowship/>